

Lesson 8
READ THESE SENTENCES

- 1. Mr. Pearson was tearful when he heard about his son's learning disability, but he knew his son was smart and willing to work hard to overcome it.
- 2. Pearl Harbor was the target of the first Japanese attack on the United States in World War II.
- 3. Justice Earl Warren issued an unpopular decision in the late 1960's which banned segregation in educational institutions.
- 4. In 1969, Edward Hearst's earned run average was 2.
- 5. Air traffic controllers speculated that the plane's disappearance from the radar screen was due to severe wind shear.
- 6. After her childbearing years, Mrs. Kearny worked in the market research department of Sears Roebuck.