My Persian Cat

Do you have a pet? I have a Persian cat named Lydia. Lydia is quite chubby. She has long silky fur and short legs.

Lydia doesn't blink when I stare into her dark eyes. She often acts as if she were the Queen of Persia and I were her servant. She gives me a scornful look when I interrupt her plans, but I just laugh.

Mom says it is irrational to try to control Lydia. She has an independent spirit. So I try not to worry when Lydia disappears. But sometimes she is gone for a week. There is no guarantee that she will return to me. Do cats ever get amnesia?
