

Lesson 10

READ THESE SENTENCES

Read silently, then read aloud with good phrasing.

1. A faith healer from the Far East was unable to cure Mrs. Dean's eating disorder.
2. Listening to lively Dixieland music in New Orleans puts me in seventh heaven.
3. Chelsea stood on the bleachers and called to her father, but the noise of the crowd was deafening.
4. An unreasonable teacher insisted that neatness counts despite my dysgraphia, so now I type my papers instead of writing them.
5. The peace officer made Floyd stand in a spread-eagle position while he searched Floyd for a concealed weapon.
6. When Mr. Peabody appealed a misleading charge of election fraud, he publicized his sneaky opponent's treasonous tactics.
7. President Nixon didn't leave office until several senators threatened to impeach him.
8. Heather Jones revealed that she's anxious to return to New Zealand to see her husband, who's a Rear Admiral in the Navy.