

Lesson 3

READ THESE SENTENCES

Read silently, then read aloud with good phrasing.

- 1. The gold bullion Dan discovered hidden in a cave was worth trillions of dollars.
- 2. During the 1920's, many famous American painters and musicians lived in Paris as expatriates.
- 3. After almost starving for two years in a prisoner of war camp, Marion appeared emaciated.
- 4. Carrier pigeons were one of the earliest ways to quickly send messages to various places.
- 5. If you have dyslexia, it can be excruciatingly difficult to spell words correctly.
- 6. Estonia is now an independent country, but it used to be a region in the Soviet Union.
- 7. Many delicious dishes contain Vidalia onions or scallions.
- 8. Full inclusion programs don't provide any time to remediate a student's deficient skills.