

Lesson 6

READ THESE SENTENCES

Read silently, then read aloud with good phrasing.

1. Kimberly won't trade her chocolate Hershey bar for Stanley's soft-boiled egg.
2. Is Ripley's Believe It Or Not Museum on Coney Island or in Disneyland?
3. At recess, Jeffrey Dempsey got a charley horse after he hoisted himself up on the monkey bars.
4. Would you rather put boysenberries, chutney, or olive oil on your barley salad?
5. The soil at the top of Mt. McKinley is devoid of nutrients, perhaps due to an asteroid hitting it millions of years ago.
6. Libraries classify and arrange their encyclopedias using the Dewey decimal system.
7. A hackneyed phrase is one that is overused.
8. In the winter, do osprey migrate to the Orkney Islands or to Whidbey Island?
9. I get annoyed at the tabloids in the supermarket because they are always full of baloney.