

Lesson 9

READ THESE SENTENCES

Read silently, then read aloud with good phrasing.

1. It is counterproductive to hide cauliflower in a glass of milk, and then demand a brownie for dessert.
2. The Canadian Mounties on the tower looked down at the crowd surrounding the crown jewels.
3. Mrs. Woodrow saw an interesting announcement on the bulletin board for a housekeeper.
4. The devout man knew he would be held accountable if he became too rowdy at the church picnic.
5. John Phillip Sousa needed stouthearted men to simultaneously march and blow into his extremely large Sousaphone.
6. The Dow Jones average plummeted when the two superpowers called off their nuclear disarmament talks.
7. When the stowaway was discovered, he raised some eyebrows by pulling out a Power of Attorney agreement and self-proclaiming political asylum.