

Lesson 9

READ THESE SENTENCES

1. A pachyderm is a large animal with thick skin such as a rhinoceros, an elephant, or a hippopotamus.
2. A simple blood test, called Hemoglobin Electrophoresis, can tell if you have sickle cell anemia.
3. Jeffrey is still confused about the difference between osteoarthritis and rheumatoid arthritis.
4. People who shop in health food stores often prefer naturopathic or homeopathic medicine over traditional pharmacological therapy.
5. Although Bob thought he was having cardiac arrest, it turns out his chest pain was caused by severe gastrointestinal problems.
6. The dermatologist was surprised that Jan developed such a large hematoma from the simple hypodermic injection he had given her the prior week.
7. Due to a recurrence of chronic iritis, the surgeon had to postpone all of his cardiovascular bypass operations for a month.
8. Idiopathy means a disease with no known cause, such as Chronic Fatigue Syndrome.