

Lesson 4

READ THESE SENTENCES

Read to yourself, then read aloud with good phrasing.

- 1. The neighbors felt the addition to Steve's house was extremely controversial, but they knew it was irreversible.
- 2. Susan was not accustomed to accepting advice, but to appease her father, she listened to him, and then she applauded.
- 3. When the aggressive reporter attempted to enter the building without showing his press credentials, the attentive guard had him arrested.
- 4. To appear unbiased, the appellate court judge applied humor while he continued to strongly support affirmative action.
- 5. My accountant did not appreciate having to create financial projections at the same time she had to switch from a cash to an accrual system.
- 6. Charles was infuriated that so many people assumed he was guilty of the assault and battery charges.