

Lesson 5

READ THESE SENTENCES

Read to yourself, then read aloud with good phrasing.

- 1. Young children are more susceptible to ear infections than adults.
- 2. Jill's efforts to electrify her dilapidated shack proved ineffective.
- 3. Eventually, my supervisor wants to achieve zero defects in the manufacturing area.
- 4. An unexpected consequence of the dissolution of the Iron Curtain is a significant decrease in the number of Russian defectors.
- 5. At the convention, the provisional government announced a new directive aimed at intercepting illegal immigrants.
- 6. Since the inception of diversity training, preconceived notions about people based on their appearance have become unacceptable.
- 7. Imperceptibly, Mrs. Franklin circumvented the rules by gradually erecting a wall between the convent and the ugly television transmitter.