A Finch

If I were a finch, I think I would have fun.

In the spring, I would sit on a branch and bask in the sun. I could get some string and a twig or a stick and fix a nest. I would sing a long song.

Some one would get a lift from the song. They would clap and fling a kiss.

Next, I would nod, tuck in a wing, and get a rest.
