The Dentist

The dentist told me, “You have a cavity that I’ll have to fill. It’s evident that you don’t brush and floss as well as you should.”

I felt as if I were a criminal. I do try to floss and brush, even when I’m busy and in a rush.

I was confident the dentist would compliment me on this trip. It was difficult to sit there with dignity because I was innocent.

I think I’ll change my dentist.
