Bee in the Pew

Matthew sat in the pew with his family. The music was slow and mellow. He began to nod off. He did wish he had a pillow.

That's when a big yellow and black bee flew in the window. Matthew didn't have a clue what to do when it began to creep on his elbow.

He did try to brush the bee away. Then he felt the sting, and he let out a bellow.

Mom gave him a tissue and told him to be still. That's difficult for Matthew.
