

Lesson 14
READ THIS STORY #2, Advanced

Elect Frank

Joan put on her tweed coat. She will proceed to mix with the people and wait to cheer Frank after his speech.

He will proclaim the value of his program and will ask them to elect him. Then Frank will meet the people who remain. To represent them, he will need to listen and know how they feel.

Joan has faith that Frank will win. She'll help him to be confident as they board the train to travel to the next city.