Final Exam

Steven hasn't slept well. He has the flu. He's behind in class. So he must get all the bonus credit on the final exam to pass the class on the human body.

But at the moment, his mind is hazy. He can't recall the facts. Steven can't tell a robot from a rodent.

Steven has been a solid student. He wants to be a Navy pilot. But if Steven doesn't pass this class, he won't get the job.
