

Lesson 2

READ THIS STORY #2, Advanced

The Music Camp

Judy is livid. Tony Roman does want to open a music camp next to her motel. She says the camp will be a haven for Irish drums that will begin to thump at sunup, and that her motel will be vacant.

Judy does think that it's her duty to request that the city veto his plan.

Tony will defend his chosen spot for the camp. He says the city will profit and that Judy should relax.