

Lesson 4
READ THIS STORY #1, Basic

A Hippo?

What would you do if a hippo went for a swim next to you? I suspect you would object.

Would you jump from the pond in a flash and make a frantic dash to the city?

Would you ask your brother to pop him with his pellet gun?

Would you pick him up with a winch and drop him on a cactus patch?

Would you try a hocus-pocus trick and command the hippo to vanish?

Or would you extend your hand and try to be a friend? Would you ask that hippo to visit again?
