The Lotto Ticket

Nathan did stop at the shop to pick up a lotto ticket. It only cost one buck. If Nathan should win the pot, he would be rich. It would be fun to quit his job. He would stick some of the cash in the bank and pack his bag. Nathan would take Shannon on a long trip.

Shannon is a skeptic. She does not expect to win any cash with a lotto ticket. Shannon said, “It is not prudent to spend one cent on such a scam. If you wish to be a rich man, your best tactic is to get a bond or some stock.”

Nathan said, “With any plan, one must have a lot of luck to get rich.”
