

Lesson 5

READ THIS STORY #1, Basic

Acceptable Acts

Joan told her son and daughter that she expected their acts to be acceptable. They did know what was prohibited in their house.

They were not to be sassy or grumpy with the babysitter. They were not to be messy in the kitchen. Mrs. Smith was a dependable babysitter, and Joan was happy that she was available.

The kids thought that Mrs. Smith was crabby and bossy. They were praying that she wouldn't come through the door.