

Lesson 5

READ THIS STORY #2, Advanced

Investment In Our Children

In a speech, the president said that it would be best to put a bigger investment into our children. He said that tax funds were available, and his goals were attainable.

Swaying the minds of the congressmen will be a difficult task. The President will need publicity to be successful.

If Congress is agreeable, they will study his plans and present a bill to the president. He may veto it if the details are not acceptable to him.