

Lesson 6
READ THESE SENTENCES

1. On the snowiest day in April, Frances defied her mother and went flying.
2. Last Sunday, my flabby friend got skinnier by jogging for four hours.
3. My father says I am paying way too much rent for the tiniest house on the block.
4. Amy replied that the scruffiest dog belonged to her.
5. “Could you be any sloppier?” yelled my boss after I accidentally splashed soapy water on his blue silk tie.
6. “Stop justifying spying on your brother,” demanded my mother.
7. Frank displayed the snappiest shoes but the ugliest checkered pants I’d ever seen.