

Lesson 6

READ THIS STORY #2, Advanced

The Faithful Humanist

There was a visiting Humanist in the pulpit on Sunday. Max expected her to give a windy speech about faith, Godlessness, hell, sin, and punishment.

Max thought he was a reliable follower of Jesus. But as he listened to what the woman had to say about selflessness, love for humanity, and civility, Max repented.

He knew he had strayed from his chosen path, and he needed to mend his ways.