

Lesson 7

READ THIS STORY #2, Basic

Tradition

It was a tradition in the Young family to take a vacation in July.

Mr. Young would call a family meeting in the spring. He would recommend destinations. On this occasion, additions could be made to the list.

There would be a long discussion about the best options. At the conclusion of the meeting, there would be an election to select the location of the vacation.