

Lesson 12
READ THESE SENTENCES

1. During the scuffle, Dad did stumble, and he fell into a huge puddle.
2. Because she wanted to stay thin, Rebecca would only nibble a small sample of the chocolate cake.
3. It's impossible not to snuggle little kittens up to your face, and then cradle them in your lap.
4. In the stable, Joan put a saddle on her nimble pony, then she jumped on him and tried to dazzle us as she rode off at a gallop.
5. "Drizzle icing over top of the coffeecake," Mom commanded.
6. If we don't get a donation by the middle of spring, we must hold a raffle and sell all our cattle.
7. An incredible new job title will become available once the executive retires.