

Lesson 13

READ THESE SENTENCES

1. The examiner was bristling with anger due to an inadequate supply of pencils during the examination.
2. When accused of rustling cattle, the ranch manager just shrugged and claimed the loss was due to obstacles beyond his control.
3. The frustrated gentleman tried to capture the mice that scrambled behind his cubicle.
4. Once Phyllis finally took a vacation, she felt revitalized, and her ability to handle life's challenges improved.
5. Due to the twinkling in Dad's eyes, and the chuckle in his throat, I knew he loved me despite my impulsive actions.
6. Mr. Prinkle felt misgivings about the way he relentlessly heckled his uncle at the dinner table.