The New Puppy

Irene has a new puppy. He has huge expressive eyes and an explosive bark. He is a very active fellow.

Irene will train him to behave and be a polite dog. He will become aware of new commands. “Sit!” “Fetch.” “Drop it.” “Come!”

He won’t know why he should be expected to sit when he feels like playing. He may get all mixed up from time to time and make a mistake.

Irene will not rush him or abuse him. Irene will embrace him and be kind.
