Judge Judy

Judge Judy wears a black robe. When she enters and takes the bench, all of the people in attendance rise to their feet.

Two people remain standing. A man with a badge has to make them swear to tell the truth before the case begins. These people have a chance to tell their side of the problem. They want Judge Judy to decide that they are right so they can get money or possessions.

The judge asks questions. She challenges them if she does not think they are telling the complete truth. She may give them advice. The decision of Judge Judy is final.
