

Lesson 4

READ THESE SENTENCES

Read silently, then read aloud with good phrasing.

1. Just as the travel brochure had promised, Mozambique turned out to be a unique destination.
2. The mechanic used a torque wrench to tighten the head bolts on the engine.
3. George Balanchine was famous for his graceful arabesques.
4. Much to her chagrin, Cheryl spilled champagne all over her expensive chiffon gown that had a collar of Chantilly lace.
5. The psychiatrist couldn't decide whether to have Chardonnay or Chenin Blanc with his Chinook salmon.
6. A retreating glacier will often form a cirque, an indentation with a lake, in steep mountains.
7. Cher's statuesque physique adds to her mystique.
8. While stretched out on the chaise lounge, Dominique nonchalantly ate pistachio nuts.