

Lesson 6

READ THESE SENTENCES

Read silently, then read aloud with good phrasing.

1. My favorite meal in Paris was quiche Lorraine with chocolate mousse for dessert, followed by a demitasse.
2. Because he had a severe migraine headache, André couldn't attend the premiere of John Carré's new movie.
3. The duchess passed the secret communiqué to André while they danced the gavotte.
4. When a glacier melts and retreats, it often leaves behind a huge pile of rocks, which is called a glacial moraine.
5. Elaine, my protégée, says that neither consommé nor liver paté on brioche make a good canapé.
6. The military attaché tried to act blasé when the svelte divorcée opened the door wearing only a negligé.