

Lesson 1

READ THESE SENTENCES

Read silently, then read aloud with good phrasing.

1. Michael was chronically late to meetings in Antioch, which annoyed Christie.
2. Is the flower of a rhododendron larger than a chrysanthemum?
3. Nicholas was euphoric that it was an infection, and not something in his spinal column, that caused his chronic earaches.
4. The San Francisco Chronicle reported that many people in Munich have extremely high cholesterol.
5. Mrs. Nichols was a Rhodes scholar who studied archeology in Antioch.
6. The electrical engineer studied the schematic for a highly technical cochlear implant.
7. Neither the physician nor the chiropractor could help Mr. Buchanon, who was a hypochondriac.